The above Assemblies Segments are under the control of the District Election Officer, East Khasi Hills District who is the Returning Officer of 1-Shillong Parliamentary Constituency.

The duties and functions of each functionary are as below

1. Election Commission

Article 324 of the Constitution lays down, among other things, that the superintendence, directions and control of the preparation of the electoral rolls for all elections to Parliament and to the Legislature of every State shall be vested in the Election Commission.

2. Chief Electoral Officer

Under Section 13A of the R.P. Act, 1950, there shall be a Chief Electoral Officer for each State/Union Territory. He is an Officer of the Government designated or nominated by the Election Commission in this behalf in consultation with the State Government. Subject to the superintendence, direction and control of the Election Commission, the Chief Electoral Officer shall supervise the preparation and revision of electoral rolls of all the constituencies in the State.

3. District Election Officers

Section 13AA of the R.P. Act, 1950 provides for the appointment of a District Election Officer in each district who shall be an officer of Government. Normally the District Collectors/ District Magistrates/ Deputy Commissioners have been designated as District Election Officers of their districts. However, there are some exceptions to this normal practice in certain States like Assam because of administrative reasons. Subject to the superintendence, direction and control of the Chief Electoral Officer, the District Election Officer shall coordinate and supervise all work in the district or in the area within his jurisdiction in connection with preparation and revision of electoral rolls for all the parliamentary, assembly and council constituencies. 3.2 Under the law, the Election Commission has the power to designate or nominate more than one such officer for a district if the Commission is satisfied that the functions of the Office cannot be performed satisfactorily by one Officer. The Commission has appointed more than one District Election Officer in one district in State like Assam.

4. Electoral Registration Officer

According to Section 13B of the Act, the electoral roll for each constituency in the State shall be prepared and revised by an Electoral Registration Officer, who shall be such Officer of Government or of a local authority as the Election Commission may, in consultation with the Government of the State, designate or nominate in this behalf. Normally the Sub-Divisional Magistrates or the Sub-Divisional Officers or Officers of equivalent status are appointed as Electoral Registration Officers for the Assemble Constituencies within their respective jurisdiction as far as practicable. The Electoral Registration Officers are permitted to employ such person as they think fit, subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the Commission, for the preparation and revision of Electoral rolls.

5. Assistant Electoral Registration Officer

Section 13C of the Act provides for the Appointment of one or more persons as Assistant Electoral Registration Officers to assist the Electoral Registration Officer in the performance of their functions. The Assistant Electoral Registration Officers are competent to perform all the function of the Electoral Registration Officers subject to the control of the Electoral Registration Officers. The Tehsildars are normally appointed as the Assistant Electoral Registration Officers.

6. Appellate Officers

6.1 During the process of preparation or revision of electoral roll an Appeal shall lie from any decision of the Electoral Registration Officers under rules 20, 21, or 21 A to such Officer of the Government as the Election Commission may designate in this behalf. The District Collectors/ District Magistrates/ Deputy Commissioners are normally appointed as Appellate Officers.

6.2 After the final publication of the roll, an Appeal shall be from an order of the Electoral Registration Officer. Under Section 22 or 23 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 to the Chief Electoral Officer.
